

LeicesterShire Equalities Forum

Terms of Reference

- To encourage greater partnership working on issues common to Forum members;
- To devise, develop and disseminate equality, diversity and human rights best practice;
- To provide peer support and encouragement to members in a confidential setting, abiding by the Chatham House Rule when required;
- To represent Districts, Boroughs, City and County within Leicestershire;
- To meet a minimum of four times each year and to call additional meetings and workshops as required;
- To develop links and co-ordinate activities with Local Strategic Partnerships, the voluntary sector and other strategic bodies to take forward the equalities, diversity and human rights agenda
- To develop closer working with other groups, including the voluntary sector;
- To respond, as a consortium, to government consultation.